Rhenman & Partners strengthens its Investor Relations team further

Rhenman & Partners hires Mattias Hagen as Investor Relations Director. Mattias joins Rhenman & Partners Investor Relations team based in Stockholm consisting of Erica von Bahr and Tom Josephson. In his role, Mattias will work both with Swedish and international investors. Most recently Mattias has worked with institutional investors at Carnegie Fonder. Prior to that he worked in distribution roles at Invesco and Goldman Sachs. He started his career at Skandia and later moved on to SEB Wealth Management, where he spent 10 years in various roles, including Head of Manager Research.

"It is very exciting and inspiring to join Rhenman & Partners. I see them as one of the Nordic region's strongest niche asset managers. I look forward to being a part of the continued development of the firm." – says Mattias Hagen

"We are very pleased that Mattias is joining Rhenman & Partners. His broad skill set and experience make him a strong addition to our organization. Mattias will be an important part of our contacts with investors, both in Sweden and internationally." - says Teresa Isele, CEO of Rhenman & Partners

Mattias is one of several recruitments Rhenman & Partners has made over the past months. Earlier this year, Tom Josephson joined the firm's Investor Relations team, and in September Camilla Oxhamre Cruse joined the investment team as a Biopharma Portfolio Manager.

Mattias starts his position with Rhenman & Partners in October and will be based in their Stockholm office.
